RECURRENT INJURY OR SICKNESS

If an Injury or Sickness causes the Insured Person to incur eligible expenses following which a continuous period of six or more months elapses during which the same Injury or Sickness does not cause the Insured Person to incur any eligible expenses and does not require any treatment of the Insured Person by a Physician, the Insured Person will be deemed to have recovered from the Injury or Sickness at the end of the period of six months.

Thereafter, a subsequent recurrence of the Injury or Sickness which causes the Insured Person to incur eligible expenses will be deemed to be a different Injury or Sickness to which the full maximum reimbursement limit will be applicable without any reduction or variation by reason of eligible expenses incurred as a result of the Injury or Sickness from which the Insured Person was deemed to have recovered.
