

Limitations and Exclusions to Dental Benefits

No benefit is payable for:

- Any cause for which the insured may apply for and receive protection, exemption or compensation under any Workers' Compensation Act.
- Dentures, bite plates, bridges, bleaching, orthodontic services.
- Any anesthesia administered in a hospital.
- Any dental charges not included in the current provincial fee guide.
- Any dental treatment for the correction of temporomandibular joint dysfunction.
- Any dental care, treatment or supplies primarily for cosmetic purposes.
- Any dental appliances including replacement of mislaid, lost or stolen appliances.
- Endodontic treatment that started before the effective date of coverage.
- Procedures or supplies used in vertical dimension corrections (changing the height of the teeth) or to correct attrition problems (worn down teeth).
- Any dental treatment for the correction of temporomandibular joint dysfunction.
- Any services or supplies for implantology, including tooth implantation and surgical insertion of fabricated implants; 13) Services or supplies received outside of Canada.
- Any other exclusion identified in the policy contract.