Gender Affirmation Care

Coverage for gender-affirming medical care and legal assistance for students on their gender affirmation journeys

For eligibility details, visit alumo.ca.

Medical coverage

Designed to complement the coverage for gender-affirming care already provided by provincial health insurance. It offers:

- → Up to $1,000 for transportation and accommodation expenses (50% co-pay)
- → Up to $50,000 coverage as a lifetime maximum for eligible procedures and for transportation and accommodation expenses

See alumo.ca for a list of eligible procedures.

Legal Assistance

Connects you with a partner law firm, giving you access to a legal consultation service that includes:

- → Guidance on the course of action you may want to consider in your gender-affirming journey
- → Legal advice on gender and name changes

How to access the services

Medical coverage

Submit your claims online or by mail to be reimbursed for eligible procedures. Visit alumo.ca for policy details and claiming instructions.

Note that in order to be eligible for medical coverage, you must provide a diagnosis of gender dysphoria from a legally qualified physician (M.D.) or nurse practitioner, and your gender-affirming care medical expenses must not already be covered by provincial health care.

Scan and select your student association or institution for more details

Legal assistance

Fill out the online support form at alumo.ca and select Gender Affirmation Care as the reason for your request.

A legal partner will respond to you shortly.
