

The Essentials

A consultation service for all your legal questions, and legal representation for disputes related to housing, employment, academic rights, and more

See alumo.ca for eligibility details.

Legal consultation

The legal consultation service provides quick access to legal counselling on any area of law. This service includes:

- Virtual, phone, or in-person meeting with a lawyer
- Legal research
- Document analysis: contracts, formal notices, procedures, etc.
- Interpretation of laws and jurisprudence in relation to the student's situation
- Legal advice on the student's situation
- Explanation of legal concepts
- Sharing legal information
- Case follow-up with the law firm
- And more

Get legal support today!

Scan to fill out the online form and request legal support

Legal representation

A lawyer will take charge of proceedings related to the following areas of law:

→ Disputes related to a housing lease

→ Disputes related to an employment contract

→ Disputes with an academic institution

→ Public notary services

To learn more about the representation service, visit alumo.ca.

Legal representation includes:

→ Lawyers' fees

→ Legal costs (disbursements):

- Legal expenses (costs of initiating proceedings, service costs, stenography costs, etc.)
- Compensation and allowances granted to witnesses

→ Fees for an expert witness, up to a maximum of $1,000

ALUMO